JUDGMENT

The petitioner is aggrieved by the attachment of his movables for the sales tax dues of his son. He filed a claim petition to release the goods covered by Ext.P3. During the pendency of the writ petition, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted, the said claim petition has been dismissed. The 4th respondent is directed to furnish a copy of the same to the petitioner, so that he can work out his statutory remedy against it. The first respondent is directed to estimate the probable value of the goods mentioned in Ext.P3. The petitioner shall be given a chance to pay the amount and purchase the goods before it is notified for further sale.

The Writ Petition is disposed of as above.
